Exploring Information Sources

library.georgiasouthern.edu
Hello!

I am Autumn Johnson

Special Collections Librarian
Liaison to History, Art, & Theatre
autumnjohnson@georgiasouthern.edu
By the end of the session, you will be able to:

- Locate and navigate Library course guide
- Recognize how information changes over time
- Locate appropriate library tools to find the information you need
Information Cycle

- Minutes: Social Media (Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat)
- Weeks: Weekly Magazines (Time, Newsweek, People, The New Yorker)
- 1 Month: Monthly Magazines (Wired, National Geographic, Scientist)
Information Cycle

Scholarly Journals
- Journal of American History
- JAMA

Books + Reports
- nonfiction titles, biographies, textbooks, agency reports

6+ Months

Why so long? Expert Scholars will develop theories and conduct research to explain the reasons, consequences, and/or future implications of an event.

12+ Months

6+ months after an event, articles will be published in scholarly journals describing and explaining the results of this.
v.s.
University Libraries

About the Georgia Southern University Libraries
Lane Library - Savannah Armstrong & Liberty Users
Zach S. Henderson Library Statesboro
Using Library Resources from Off Campus

LANE LIBRARY

Did you know?

Enter Keywords to Search

- Discover (articles, books & more)
- GIL-Find (Library Catalog)
- Search Course Reserves
- Journal Title List
- Credo Reference (dictionaries & encyclopedias -- login may be required)

Library Resources

Today's Hours - See Full Schedule

Zach S. Henderson Library 24 Hours
Lane Library 7:30am - 11pm
Learning Commons (Armstrong) 10am - 2am

Search this site for: Keywords Search
Have Questions?
Need Help?

● Check the LibGuide
● Check the LibGuide
● Check the LibGuide

● Visit, email, or call me!
  Library Room 2210L
  autumnjohnson@georgiasouthern.edu
  912.478.7819
Do You Know It?

1. Find the course guide. georgiasouthern.libguides.com/hist112
2. Select the DO YOU KNOW IT tab.
3. Fill and submit.